Appeal for Reinstatement of Financial Aid

Once terminated from financial aid, reinstatement can be achieved if a student attends one quinmester without financial assistance (self pay) and maintains satisfactory academic progress & meets minimum attendance hours for that session. If you meet these criteria, you may apply for reinstatement of your tuition assistance.

Students must submit documentation validating the reason for their appeal. Any appeals submitted without proof validating the student's claim will be considered incomplete.

Complete the form below. You must explain: 1) the circumstances that led to your revocation of aid; 2) what you did to solve the problem; & 3) how you intend to prevent it from occurring again.
